

Wright

Waight.

Agreement between John Frosser and John Waight, April 20, 1668
We hold 1700 acres in partnership, my 850 acres on sd. Waight, John Frosser, Mr. John Payne, Sr., Golden Vale Ck., Roger Richardson. Surveyed by Capt. Alex Fleming.
Wit. Richard Heabeard, Robert Taliaferro, John Buckner.
Deeds etc. 4, p. 5.

John Waight, of the Parish of Sittingbourne, appoint trusty and well beloved friend, Thomas Freshwater, to acknowledge ~~instruments~~ instruments of division with one John Frosser.
8per 23, 1668.

Wit. Henry Crighton, John Knott.
Deeds etc. 4, p. 21.

John Frosser, John Waight, Roger Richardson and Thomas Pannell of the Parish Sittingborne, Planters, power of attorney to Mr. George and John Mott to sue any person or persons---- as shall anyway or by any means go about to make voyd the last will and testament of Thomas Farrell late of the said County, dated Jan. 9, 1669.
Deeds etc., 4, p. 234.

John Waight of Rappahannock, for 700 pounds sterling to Benjamin Hansley 120 acres on the lower side of Golden Vale Creek, near land of lower side of Golden Vale Creek, near land of Roger Richardson, adjoining the sd. Waight.
March 6, 1677/8
Wit. Thomas Parker, Henry Berry.
Deeds 6, p. 30

Same to James Jackson, 120 acres adjoining the sd. Waight, to a plantation on which John Crow formerly lived, commonly called Nut Grove. Feb. 23, 1677/8.
Wit. Symon Miller, John Benton.
Deeds 6, p. 30

James Key, James Taylor were witnesses on an indenture from Anthony Savage to his son-in-law, Francis Thornton and wife Alice. 1678.
Deeds 6, p. 64.

Robert Key married Mary the sister of Robert Waight and daughter of John Waight. 1696.
Old Rappahannock Order Bk. 1, Rev., p. 379